SCORING

45-60 – You are in the zone! Keep going and if you want a challenge, turn things up a notch. Challenge yourself to be more aware on a regular basis and engage more with men when the opportunity is there.

25-44 – You've got some game, but greater consistency will deliver better results. You could probably meet more men if you smiled more, noticed men around you, and overall engaged more with men. Raise your awareness and take advantage of the greater opportunities that come your way. Turn up the heat on your feminine charm and presentation so your allure skyrockets.

0 – 24 - it's time to shake things up! Work on your confidence and then engage more often with men just for practice to build your skills. Men are all around you but you need to be aware of them, talk to and flirt with them to maximize their interest in you.
